

April 2023

Collage

From The President

Hello Artists:

Cheers! The tour was another great success this year. Elaine and Lloyd Tarr do a magnificent job putting the materials for the tour together. This fall as they begin discussing Tour D' Artistes 2024, consider joining them in the planning. It's necessary to have as many backups as possible for a number of tasks to keep our league running smoothly. Best of all, everything has been fine tuned, they will be with you to teach you everything you need to do. I am hoping to find a group of you with the interest.

I am curious how many of you have ever considered getting a representative for your artwork. A good agent can save the artist time, will have contacts not accessible to most artists, and should have the skills to negotiate better financial deals. Busy agents also tend to represent a range or artists, so they may have a better chance of being seen by potential customers than artists themselves.

Our guest speaker for April 3rd is Debbe Goldstein and she is an Art-rep with an amazing history of representing emerging artists. I'm sure if you have questions, she'll have answers.

I'm looking forward to seeing you there.

Best wishes to you.

Nancy Grahlmann

Guest Speaker

Debbe Goldstein will speak about her business as an Art Representative. Her history began in New York City at The Kitchen. The Kitchen identifies and presents emerging and under recognized artists in Video, Music and Dance. She moved on to the Art Center of College of Design, Klasky Csupo and Dreamworks in Pasadena from that which emphasized her skill in recruiting and teaching emerging artists to find significant and sustainable art careers. Today, a combination of her experience, education and moving into the social media world, selling online gives her the internet presence worldwide. She has served as President of the Advisory Board at The Arizona State University Museum of Art and one year on the Board of Trustees at SMOCA. Her talent has no end and her vivaciousness is contagious. Plan to enjoy an educational experience.

Greetings from Costa Rica

Hola! To all my wonder-filled Artist Friends, and Good Luck for the Studio Tour.

I invite you to come experience Pura Vida "The Pure Life".

Our B&B is located In Atenas, Costa Rica. The town known for the most perfect weather in the world. Temperature is within 10 Degrees of 80 every day and 60-degree nights. We will be here until September 1st so make your plans now. If you use the Southwest Airlines Lowfare Calendar, the flight is quite reasonable.

If you want to escape the sizzling temperatures of the southwest, we can show you the perfect paradise.

Come join us for a week or more and relax and experience our peace in the mountains. We are 30 minutes from the modern San Jose airport, and less than 1 hour to the Pacific Beaches, and 3.5 hours to the Caribbean coast.

We have sponsored many trips and tours and would like to do so for you too. Dan has guided tours in Arizona, SCUBA adventures to the Caribbean and the Shearers are hosting family friends and yet-to-be friends. Our Costa Rica experience has spanned 30-plus years.

Pamela is a renowned artist and will offer time on your visit for painting on the patio.

With Art
and

Teaching degrees, she adds depth and color to your stay. Daniel is a chef and prepares wonderful meals..... Daniel will make breakfast every morning and tailor your meals for any special dietary needs.

Our knowledge of this diverse beautiful botanically rich country will enhance your time spent with us. Why not Air B&B, VBRO, House Renters or any other company? We are old school and believe in developing a personal relationship with those who say in our little B&B. The cost savings is passed on to you. We offer a 5% discount for cash payments when you arrive.

Email us at Allthecoconuts@gmail.com or pamelasheare8@gmail.com and we will reserve a space for you.

News Items

If you have any news items, please send to Sandy Herbst,

February Artists of the Month

The 1st place winner is Rob Snyder with his hand painted ceramic plate called “Green Eyes.” The piece is one in a series of “Fashion Plates” TM. Fashion Plates are hand thrown plates, bisqued and then hand painted with underglazes. They are then sprayed with a clear glaze and glaze fired to cone 5, about 2,180°.

Tie for 2nd place

Lloyd Tarr with his triptych of “Snow on Four Peaks”

Trevor Paglen

For most of his artistic career, artist and geographer Trevor Paglen has focused on the American surveillance state — what it means to see and be seen. His pieces include a temporary satellite (“Orbital Reflector,” 2018) and long-distance photos of military bases and stealth drones. Paglen’s work pushes boundaries — not only of what can be considered art, but also of our own capacity to truly see our surroundings. Here, he reminds us that art can open up our senses in new ways, deepening our understanding of the world and our place in it.
