From the President

We had a great April meeting; The teachers and winners of the Tour drawing prizes were present and were very grateful and excited. The Art teachers explained how they use our gift certificates to purchase items they wouldn't otherwise afford, to expose the students to such things as working at a standing easel, or working with clay building or printmaking tools. One of our tour winners spoke about how grateful she is to the art league for giving those in the community venues to attend and meet new friends. Please remember to greet our new members and help them feel welcome.

Local Student requesting Art Mentor: Julia is 16 years old. She works mostly in colored pencil, charcoal and has recently picked up painting with acrylic. She is talented and would greatly benefit from mentoring. Please let Bonnie know if you would be willing to share your knowledge with this art student.

Summer Project: The Board discussed an "Art Squared" art show and sale suggested by Claudia Smith, which she has participated in and found exciting. In the event we decide to pursue this idea, we will begin with using TWO small paintings as our Summer Project to be judged at our October all membership meeting. We thought it would be good to make the available paintings harmonious in color and subject matter to make it better for people to put together a grouping of the small paintings if they wish. It was suggested a Southwest Ancient and/or Modern Theme would cover a large area of ideas for the artists to utilize. It was decided to have black backgrounds using gallery wrapped canvas or cradled board that the sides are painted black or, build your own cradle board that equals 6" x 6" x 1 1/2 deep. Bright Colors used in the paintings with earth tones along with turquoise/blue...typical southwest colors. The artists would submit two paintings. Since this will be the summer project, the paintings will be judged as a pair and the winning artist would win the $100 prize money. The potential is that all of the paintings submitted for the summer project in October would eventually culminate in our first Art Squared event at a yet unspecified date.
