From The President

Hello Artists:

I am bursting with excitement as we come into our new adventures beginning in October. The summer project on “Children” makes me wonder what everyone has come up with. It always amazes me how one topic given to a group of artists can be presented in so many unique ways.

I gave a workshop recently on encaustic painting. I gave each of the artists the same project, but they all were uniquely different pieces. I think that’s the beauty of being part of the Fountain Hills Art League, we all inspire each other. It opens our minds, and we see something and say to ourselves, “I never thought of that!” Or we think, “What a great idea!” and we pick it up and expand on it while nurturing our own growth as an artist. We are always growing; always learning. I don’t know about you, but the more I learn, the more I realize there is a lot more to learn.

Keep on keepin’ on, see you soon,
Nancy Grahlmann

Dear wonderful artists,

The summer is coming slowly to an end. We will meet again on Monday, October 2nd. This is a kind reminder that we all have a summer project. Include a child or several children into your artwork with whatever children do. It can be big or small, a painting or a sculpture or whatever you have in mind. There is no limit. The more children we will get, the better. It will be fun. I look forward to seeing them all. So, enjoy the summer project and bring your work on October 2nd.

Do you enjoy the Tour d' Artistes?

Want to get involved in the planning and organizing of such a great event? Elaine and Lloyd Tarr have done a fabulous job of building a structure and planning timeline to make it a success. Don't worry, they aren't leaving the post, they're just are looking for a team to shadow and learn the process for the next year. We will learn their system and help to carry the responsibilities of such a monumental event for the Fountain Hills Art League. Computer and internet skills are desired as well as a willingness to help maintain and build the Tour. Board members Dawn Porter and Cheryl Merz are looking for one or two more people to join the team. If you're interested, please email cheryl@enchantedeye.com for more information.

Just a Reminder,

Tour d' Artistes applications are due on October 11th
